SECTION-D (2Qx25M=50 Marks)
Q	Statement of question
12	We are proud to be the largest democracy in the world. For more than seventy five we have witnessed the conduct of successful elections, peaceful changes of government at the Centre and in the States, people exercising, freedom of expression, movement and religion. However, people also say that India is only a procedural democracy and not a substantive one. Differentiate between procedural and substantive democracy. Critically evaluate the challenges to democracy in India.	25	CO4
13	Do you think India is fast moving towards an era of One-party dominant system. Critically analyze the factors that are responsible of BJP’s electoral dominance both at center and states. Evaluate whether the reasons for BJP’s dominance are significantly different from those of Congress in the initial decades of India’s independence.	25	CO4
