Q12	Jamie met Oliver at a friend’s party in January 2024. Over the next few weeks, Jamie began pursuing Oliver romantically, frequently discussing their potential future together. In March 2024, Jamie proposed Oliver for marriage, claiming he had spoken to his parents, who were fully supportive of the alliance. Believing Jamie’s words, Oliver entered into a consensual sexual relationship with him. However, Jamie’s behavior changed soon after, as he started avoiding discussions about marriage. Oliver later discovered that Jamie had never informed his family about her and was, in fact, engaged to another woman, Rachel, and is happily making preparations to marry her and posting updates about the preparation through WhatsApp status/story, hiding it from Oliver. Oliver decided to register an FIR against Jamie. In the lights of aforementioned facts, answer the following questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Identify the offence for which FIR can be lodged against Jamie under BNS</li> <li>b. Identify the appropriate trial that shall be conducted in the given scenario, elaborating on the process in detail. (proceed according to the sections)</li> </ol>	25	CO4
Q13	“The Courts oversee the action of the police and exercise judicial discretion in granting bail always bearing in mind that the liberty of an individual is not unnecessarily and unduly abridged and at the same time the cause of justice does not suffer.” In the light of the given observation of the supreme court answer the following questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. How does the bail in matters of bailable offences differ from the taking bail in the non-bailable offences?</li> <li>b.
